

Connecting people to Jesus and each other

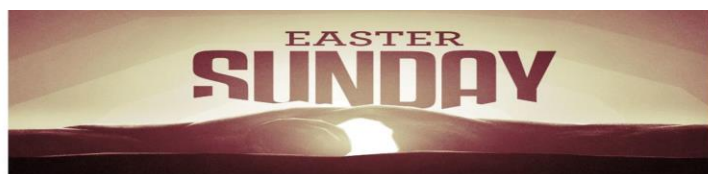

The April Issue

Volume 2, Issue 4

April 1, 2018

www.knowbcc.com

We gather today as we do every Sunday to worship the Lord and celebrate His grace for us... It seems I'm always talking to people who tell me that they know they need to get back into a healthy relationship with God and His church. With that in mind let today be the day you commit to the Lord in a new way. Let every day from here forward be a day of the Lord for you in this world. If Easter is about a resurrection, then it should truly be about you rising together with Christ and experiencing the abundant life He desires for you. Have a great Easter Celebration!!

Merge.... As a church we have 5 key core values that define who we are and what we believe to be of most importance for the church of Jesus. One of those Core Values is 'BELONGING' – we desire for people to feel like they can connect to Jesus and connect to the body of Christ, Gods people. Belonging is critical to growth. Belonging happens when the church opens its arms to visitors and makes room for them to serve and grow in their faith. As members of the church, please help us help new people feel like they can be a part of this family. Open your arms and create ways for them to serve with you and with us. In this way we will all merge together and be the beautiful body of Jesus that He desires for us to be.

Our Refined Student Ministry is looking forward to the Spring season; we have a lot coming up for our middle and high school students. Camp is one of those things that is coming up really fast. Our church helps out our students by sending them to summer camp at Park Springs. The good thing about Park Springs is that it is local and there are tons of fun activities that the students can enjoy with other students that are their own age. The way you sign your student up is by going to the Park Springs website, parksprings.org. You will find that for registration there are three different weeks that you can sign your student up for. The registration is done by age so make sure you click on the correct age group. Start thinking about signing up your students now.

The goal of our student ministry is to reach as many middle school and high school students as we can possibly come in contact with to make sure that no one goes unloved. It is our calling to make sure that everyone is loved according to how Christ loves us, and camp is a great way to do just that. Not only camp, but also our outings that are coming up soon. On Sunday nights, from 5:00 PM- 7:00 PM, we have our service for middle and high school students to come and enjoy each other and learn more about who Jesus is, while doing it in a way that best relates to our lives today. Towards the end of the month of April, we will be going to an Elon University baseball game to hang out and enjoy the fresh air.

Events coming up this Month:

April 21st- Elon Baseball game against Hartford

April 28th- No Coffee House – Dinner at Moe's

Worship Notes

It is finished.

Words that Jesus spoke as he died on the cross. What must it have been like for the disciples to be with Jesus, prior to this moment, as He spoke to them over and over again about His death, burial, and resurrection. How this must have all seemed so odd to them as it was happening. To finally have the Messiah, the Savior, here on earth, to only see Him taken in the middle of the night, beaten and mocked, scourged, spat upon, and eventually nailed to a cross to die alongside common criminals. And then He says these words of finality that He has accomplished the goal that He set out to meet. His Words on the cross are so direct and exactly what the Savior would say, what He must say. And then showing us His character even more deeply, He says, "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do." Even in death, Jesus was graceful and merciful. Even as the high priest and elders slapped Him in the face, Jesus' love never relented for us and even for them as they murdered Him.

What did Jesus mean, when He said it is finished? Was He simply relinquishing His hold on human life, or was something far greater happening? We must always keep in perspective that Jesus was fully God, yet still fully human. He had to relinquish His mortal life in order for man's sin debt to be paid. He was the sacrifice. He also had to go to the grave, just as He had told the disciples, so that He could rise again on the third day. But why? To simply be a man of His Word? "It is finished" encompasses so many promises. The wrath of God towards man's sin was satisfied once and for all. With this statement, Jesus took on death and hell, for our sakes, so that we could be reconciled to the Father. He also establishes that His ministry on earth as it was, had ended, and that He must now, as He said earlier, go away so that one greater than He could dwell within us.

When sin drags you back into feelings of guilt and shame, anxiety and worry, pride and hatred, and you cannot see clearly, know that on a cross many years ago, a man, a carpenter, a teacher, a Savior, the Son of God said the words "It is finished", and He meant them not only in that moment, but in every moment for the rest of eternity. He has already overcome sin. He has already overcome death. He experienced everything that we struggle with, and his reply was to take on the weight of our sin, the penalty for our sin, the price for our sin, and be the lamb without spot and without blemish. He paid the price for you and for me and it is finished.

What an exciting opportunity it is for us to be a part of a group of BCC people that will travel to Haiti later this year and share the good news of Jesus with hurting people. The group is coming together monthly to prepare for this trip in September. If you are thinking about coming with us please see John Nappo right away. The ball is already rolling for our preparation and God is getting us ready for this amazing journey together. Let John know if you are interested. Our next meeting is April 15 @ 6pm.

Scarlet Hope's Tea - April 28th in Louisville, KY. If you would like to attend, let Trish Nappo know as soon as possible, before the tickets sell out!

All ladies are invited to bring a friend (and a side dish) and enjoy a picnic at Joe C. Davidson Park by St. Marks Methodist Church on Sunday, April 22nd following the morning worship service. We will provide the chicken! Pray for good weather, as we will cancel in case of rain.
